

To the FCC, I am a XM Radio subscriber and a truck driver and therefore use the instant traffic and weather channels as a valuable tool as part of my business. It should be left alone as part of the service that I pay for as an XM subscriber . to interfere with the content of the paid service would not be right. The NAB. should not be able to dictate to the FCC. what goes on at XM.
David Allen